Following up on Bob Perciasepe's Mass Mailers on sequestration, we have scheduled an All-Hands Meeting this Thursday, February 28, at 3:00 pm in the first-floor conference rooms, and in overflow rooms TBD.

HQ is also preparing materials, including FAQs, that will be posted on the EPA intranet as they become available. In the meantime, please see the Office of Personnel Management's website for information on furloughs at www.opm.gov/furlough and follow the link for the "administrative furlough" section.

EPA has been taking aggressive action to minimize the impacts of potential budget cuts to our workforce and the critical work we do. We will continue to keep you updated as we know more. I appreciate your patience and support as we work through this process.
